

Heart of the Community Award

is presented to

Catholic Charities of Long Island

Catholic Charities is a ministry of the Roman Catholic Church on Long Island which provides dignified and compassionate care to the poor and vulnerable of every faith and background. Catholic Charities provides food and shelter to children and families in crisis, along with many other services to our community.

Antonia Donohue has been a supporter of Catholic Charities for many years and is proud of its transformative work in difficult circumstances.

