Community Family Literacy Project, Inc.

The Community Family Literacy Project, Inc. (CFLP) is a 501c3 organization that works with the Mastics-Moriches-Shirley Community Library's Literacy department to provide educational opportunities through English as a New Language (ENL), Family Literacy, and Citizenship programs. Their mission is to strengthen the literacy skills of the local community members as well as encourage civic engagement. They believe that education empowers individuals, families, and communities. CFLP has helped over 140 community members, representing 25 countries, achieve their dream of citizenship over the past 10 years.

Christine Bridges, Jaspan Schlesinger LLP Legal Assistant has been a member of the Community Literacy Project since 2019 and has seen first-hand the positive impact the organization has on the youth in the community. Christine has been instrumental in introducing the CFLP to many children and families in the community.
