

Heart of the Community Award is presented to

EAC Network

EAC Network is a not-for-profit social service agency that empowers, assists, and cares for 43,220 people in need through over 100 programs across Long Island and New York City. Their mission is to respond to human needs with vital programs and direct support services that protect children and youth, promote healthy families and communities, help seniors, and empower individuals to take control of their lives.

David Pasetiner, the chair of Jaspan Schlesinger's corporate and commercial transactions practice group, recently celebrated his 25th anniversary as a member of EAC Network's Board of Directors, having joined the Board in 1995 as the Class of 1995-1996. David served as Board Chair in 2005-2007, and is currently Counsel to the Board, and he was honored at EAC Network's 3rd Annual Celebrating Children's Party in 2008. In addition, Anthony Falanga, Chair of the firm's Matrimonial and Family Law and Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Practice Groups, joined EAC Network's Board of Directors as Class of 2012-2013. During the past decade, the Firm has hosted EAC Network's regular Board meetings. David, Judge Falanga and the Firm have been long-time supporters of EAC Network.

L to R: David Pasetiner, Jaspan Schlesinger LLP,
Neela Lockel, President & CEO EAC Network