Family Service League

Family Service League (FSL), established in 1926, is a premier Long Island non-profit human service organization providing a safety net for children and adults in need. FSL touches the lives of 50,000 people annually, addressing some of the most prevalent and pressing human needs facing Long Island communities. FSL delivers tangible help and crisis intervention across a spectrum of service areas including mental health counseling, addiction prevention and treatment, housing, trauma counseling, early education, and family & senior support services. In all, FSL offers over 60 programs at 20 locations throughout Long Island

Laura Granelli Gerde has been instrumental in leading the engagement with Jaspan Schlesinger LLP and Family Service League. Laura has been serving as a volunteer board member since 2016 and was recently appointed Chair-Elect. In 2019, Jaspan Schlesinger LLP was recognized by Family Service League with the Community Leadership Award for their efforts and commitment to supporting Family Service League's mission to "restoring hope and rebuilding lives, making families stronger and our communities better on a daily basis".
