

Heart of the Community Award

is presented to

North Shore Hebrew Academy High School

The North Shore Hebrew Academy (NSHA) is a Modern-Orthodox Yeshiva situated in the heart of Great Neck, New York. NSHA serves families from Great Neck and the surrounding communities including Roslyn, Queens, Manhasset, Port Washington and Old Westbury. NSHA offers a warm environment where learning thrives. The mission of the Academy is to inspire students to become passionate learners, critical thinkers, and dedicated community members. The North Shore Hebrew Academy school is where academic excellence meets Torah values and love for Israel.

Charles W. Segal, the Chair of the Firm's Construction Law Practice Group, first represented the North Shore Hebrew Academy High School pro bono in relation to the construction of its state of the art High School Facility in Great Neck and has been Counsel to and a member of its Executive Board for over 15 years. His Daughter is a proud graduate.

L to R: Laura Cohen, the Executive Director, Daniella Muller, President of the North Shore Hebrew Academy, Charles Segal, Jaspán Schlesinger LLP