

CHAMPIONS of Long Island's Special Needs Community

Countless members of the Long Island community are committed to making our area more inclusive, kind, and fun for children and adults of all abilities. From heads of schools to directors of programs, this selection highlights just some of the great people making Long Island a better place for people with disabilities.

Jothy Narendran was featured in Schneps Media's October 2023 issue of Long Island Family magazine and www.NewYorkFamily.com

● Jothy Narendran

President, Spectrum Designs
Co-Managing Partner and Chair,
Jaspan Schlesinger Narendran LLP

Jothy Narendran is president of Spectrum Designs, a nonprofit organization with a mission to create meaningful and inclusive employment opportunities for people on the autism spectrum. Jothy was awarded 'Philanthropist of the Year' at the Herald's Top Lawyers of Long Island awards gala. Jothy is co-managing partner and chair of Jaspan Schlesinger Narendran LLP's banking and financial services practice group.

